To Whom It May Concern,

I highly recommend Diana Bonelli as a dog trainer. She is extremely competent, compassionate and skilled in her training. My dog Sadi, an English Springer Spaniel was introduced to Diana when she was eight months old. Sadi was an extremely disobedient and highly active animal. Diana taught me the necessary skills to effectively train my dog.

We trained in several different locations including my home, the park and neighborhood streets. Diana was persistent and continued to train Sadi until she mastered each skill such as: sit, stay, come, heel, etc. After completion of our training sessions, Diana followed up a few weeks later.

I was still having some difficulty with Sadi since I was a new dog owner. Diana offered to come to my home again to work with Sadi until she mastered the commands she was taught. I still maintain contact several months later with Diana and continue to seek her advice when problems arise. My dog is more obedient as a result of her training and has become part of our family.

Sincerely,
